

Culturally Responsive Instruction for Native American Students

Culturally Responsive Practice Inventory for those who Support Teachers

Your Name

What is the current status of culturally responsive instruction in your school or district?

What are your school's or district's priorities for culturally responsive instruction?

Which principles of culturally responsive instruction are the most and least evident in your school/district programs?

What culturally responsive practices in your school or district focus on Native American students?

Culturally Responsive Instruction for Native American Students

How do the current practices of culturally responsive instruction in your school or district incorporate Native American traditional teaching methods?

What are your points of influence for increasing culturally responsive instruction in your school for Native students?